S. T.—1860.—X.—The amount of Plantation Bitters sold in one year is something startling. They would fill Broadway six feet high, from the Park to 4th street.—Drake's manufactory is one of the institutions of N. York. It is said that Drake painted all the rocks in the eastern States with his cabalistic "S. They are used by all classes of the community, and are death on Dyspepsia—certain. They are very invigorating, when languid and weak, and a great appetizer.

WHAT DID IT?—A young lady, returning to her country home after a sojourn of a few months in New York, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a rustic, flushed face, she had a soft, ruby complexion, of almost marble smoothness; and instead of 22, she really appeared but 17. She told them plainly she used Hagan's Magnolia Balm, and would not be without it. Any lady can improve her personal appearance very much by using this article. [From the Philadelphia Daily News.]

The Philadelphia National Convention.

We publish the following to show our readers what feeling exists in the Union party in Philadelphia. The News is a Republican paper.

There has been many—alas! too many—party conventions in this country, called together to define and give success to the political and sectional views of one party against another. Of such conventions we have already reaped the bitter fruit in the divided counsels and bitter party and sectional animosities which, culminating in a civil war, inflicted upon the nation the direct curse to which God in his wrath can abandon a stiff necked and sinful generation. We want no more such conventions, at this time at least. The nation, bleeding at every pore, and weighed down with oppressive taxation, may truly say of them, as Job did of his self conceited and self-seeking counselors, miserable comforters are ye all.

Shall vain words never have an end, or no other end than raising one party over another? and that at the sacrifice of our common country, which each party has been professing to serve, while, in truth, they have been only serving themselves through the destruction of the government. What we want, then, for the restoration of the country, is not a party but a national convention—that is, a convention of citizens from every section of the Republic, whose only object shall be, in the spirit of christian charity, and in opposition to the spirit of party animosity and sectional jealousy and strife, to devise such measures of peace, harmony, and good will, as shall reunite, in social and commercial intercourse, our great American brotherhood, on those broad, comprehensive, christian and national principles, which make us one people, doing unto others as we would be done by, forgetting the things which are behind and pressing forward to those that are before.

Such we presume to be the patriotic object of the convention to assemble in our city on the 14th of August next. It seems peculiarly fitting and proper that Philadelphia above all other places should be honored with this great national assembly, whose only and all-important object is to perpetuate the work of our fathers, a work conceived in good will to every section of our common country, and based from its foundation on the confiding and co-operating sense and sentiment of all the people, of all the States embraced in this great American brotherhood.

Ignoring parties and sections, forgetting past differences and their bloody issues, content with the triumph of our arms, and with the maintenance of the just jurisdiction of our flag over every foot of our national domain, what work can now so commended itself to the approbation and co operation of every good man as the great work of reconciliation, the very mission of our holy religion of peace and good will? To know how to use a victory is a far greater art, and calls into action far higher facilities, than the winning it, inasmuch as he who ruleth his own spirit is declared by the divine word to be greater than he that taketh a city. To conquer hearts, to conciliate alienated brethren, to restore goodfellowship and feeling, is a work which angels might emulate and devils envy; and this is to be the work of our great National Union convention. Let us then, for the credit of our city and for the salvation of our common country, do all in our power to countenance and sustain by our sympathies and co operation of our brethren from all sections of our broad and glorious heritage, in this great national work and labor of love, of peace and good will.

Let those who come to this convention drop at the door sill, as they enter it, their old party habiliments and phrases. Let them come only as Americans, as lovers of the Union, as devotees of liberty, and as the pioneer of a new generation whose business and duty it shall be to re-establish that harmony and fraternity that were so ruthlessly destroyed by the misguided men who rebelled against the government and plunged us into war. Men should not come to this convention as Democrats or Republicans, but as patriots, and in accordance with the sentiment of the following proceedings, which were had in the National Johnson Club, of this city on Friday evening last:

Whereas, in suppressing the late rebellion by force of arms, it was most apparent that many of the so called leaders or managers of the Democratic party were arrayed against the people in their effort to maintain intact our theretofore glorious republic.

And whereas, since the crushing of the said rebellion, and the surrender of the rank, file, and entire rebel army, as prisoners of war, the leaders of the so called Union party, in the councils of the nation, have violated the genius of our republican form of government, and are fast driving us to centralization, setting at nought the landmarks as established by our patriotic ancestors; therefore

Resolved, That we, the members of the National Union Johnson Club of the city of Philadelphia, hereby declare that we hailed with joy the first call for a national convention to inaugurate a new party, based upon the Constitution of 1793.

Resolved, That no one should be admitted to that convention but those who come ignoring old party lines, and who are determined to restore every State to her equal status in our sovereign confederation.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing be forwarded to the National Johnson Club at Washington, duly attested.

Bill Equalizing the Soldiers Bounty.

Three year's Soldiers to get $100.—Two year's Soldiers to get fifty dollars.

WASHINGTON, July 28.

The following is the new bill to equalize bounties as it passed both Houses, and was approved by the President:

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, etc., That to each and every soldier who enlisted into the army of the United States after the 19th day of April, 1861, for a period of not less than three years, and having served his term of enlistment, has been honorably discharged, and who has received, or is entitled to received from the United States under existing laws, a bounty of one hundred dollars, and no more; and any other soldier enlisted for not less than three years, who has been honorably discharged on account of wounds received in the line of duty, and the widow, minor children, or parents in the order named, of any such soldier who died in the service of the United States or of disease or wounds contracted while in the service and in line of duty, shall be paid the additional bounty of one hundred dollars hereby authorized.

SEC. 2. That to each and every soldier who enlisted into the army of the United States after the 19th of April, 1861, during the rebellion for a period of not less than two years, and who is not included in the foregoing section, and has been honorably discharged therefrom after serving two years, and who has received or is entitled to receive from the United States under existing laws a bounty of fifty dollars and no more; and any soldier enlisted for less than three years, and who has been honorably discharged on account of wounds received in the line of duty and the widow, minor children or parents, in the order named of such soldier who died in the service of the United States, or of disease or wounds contracted while in the service of the United States, and in the line of duty, shall be paid the additional bounty of fifty dollars hereby authorized; Provided, that any soldier who has bartered, sold, assigned, transferred, loaned, exchanged or give away his final discharge papers, or any interest in the bounty provided by this or any other act of congress, shall not be entitled to receive any additional bounty whatever, and when application is made by any soldier for said bounty he shall be required under the pains and penalties of perjury, to make oath or affirmation of his identity, and has not so bartered, sold, assigned, loaned or given away either his discharge papers or any interest in any bounty as aforesaid, and no claim for such bounty shall be entertained by the Paymaster General, or other accounting or disbursing officers, except upon receipt of the claimant's discharge papers, accompanied by the statement under oath as by this section provided.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That in the payment of the additional bounty herein provided for, it shall be the duty of the Paymaster General, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, to cause to be examined the accounts of each and every soldier who makes application therefor, and if found entitled thereto, pay said bounties.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That in the reception, examination, settlement and payment of claims for said additional bounty due the widows and heirs of deceased soldiers, the accounting officers of the Treasury shall be governed by restrictions prescribed for the Paymaster General by the Secretary of War, and the payment shall be made in like manner under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Studied Injustice.

The Harrisburg Telegraph is the central Union organ of the State. It is so accepted and is without a rival in its sphere. The Union party has, therefore a right to expect of it at least fairness to a State administration whose achievements are the pride of the people who have so nobly created and sustained it. They might even expect that it should be generous in its dealing with an Executive whose name is a house hold word with the Union people of the State; but it has latterly seemed to cherish no higher ambition than to attack covertly, and defame by inuendo and suppression of the truth, the Union State administration. What infatuation or factious passion has seized it, we do not pretend to explain, but it shudders at the devotion of a loyal people to a faithful Governor, and seeks in vain to create alienation and distrust.

A few weeks ago, when it was announced that the Executives of the other leading States had refused to co-operate with Gov. Curtin in calling extra sessions to ratify the constitutional amendments, the Telegraph treated the question as settled. It made no demand for an extra session in Pennsylvania, because it could give no reason therefor. Subsequently, when it was definitely ascertained that an extra session in this State would be a fruitless expense, and a palpable confession of our distrust of the people in the coming election, because the action of Pennsylvania would not hasten the success of the amendments, Gov. Curtin answered a note from Col. Jordan in which he stated the facts fully, and defended his own position in clear and patriotic terms. That letter we learn, was furnished to the Telegraph for publication on the 10th inst., in advance of its publication elsewhere; but it has until now been suppressed. And not content with concealing from its readers the letter of Gov. Curtin on a question so important, not only to the administration but to the party, it published an article several days after the Governor's letter was in its possession denouncing him for not acting in the matter, and grossly misrepresenting the material facts connected with the determination of the question.

The assertion of the Telegraph that a majority of the Union members had requested him to call an extra session, has no foundation in fact. On the 4th of July a number of Union members, certainly not exceeding twenty five, met in Philadelphia and consulted on the question. A majority seemed to prefer an extra session, but they were not united in favor of it. The writer hereof was in the city at the time and consulted with a number of the members on the subject. We speak advisedly therefore when we say that the majority of the Union members did not ask an extra session, nor did they propose to meet without compensation. Individual members were doubtless willing to do so, but no one pretended to speak for the legislature.

The course Gov. Curtin pursued as to an extra session was adopted after full consultation with leading Union men throughout the State, and it was earnestly desired by Col. Jordan, Chairman of the Union State Committee, who doubtless judged the question in a great degree by probable political results. In addition, the entire Union press of the State—the Telegraph only excepted—either advised such a course or cordially acquiesced in it after the publication of Gov. Curtin's unanswerable lette He defined the position of affairs so clearly, both as regards political policy and practical results, that no Union journal has attempted to question its wisdom but the Telegraph and it is careful to suppress the Governor's reasons for his action.

If the Telegraph is aiming to forfeit the confidence of the Union party, and the respect of all lovers of truth and fairness, it promises to achieve a brilliant success; but if it means to claim to be a Union organ, it cannot too soon learn it owes to the representatives men of that party at least a decent respect for veracity. It has an undoubted right to choose which ever path it prefers. We take it for granted that it has counted the cost and is prepared for the logical results of its policy.—Chambersburg Repository.

The plan embraces the erection of cottages to be furnished at low rates to the families of intemperate men, and a hospital for the medical and moral treatment of inebriates. Recently, it is said, a member of one of the first families somewhere out West, was sitting in a shop door, when two flashes of lightning met directly over his head, passed down his body, nearly stripping him of his clothes, and finally departed, after having thrown his shoes several feet into the air. The man was but slightly injured.

☞Five attempts have been made to lay an Atlantic Cable, and the period covered by the different experiments is nine years. In 1857 the expedition failed on the fifth day; the first expedition of 1858 was abandoned on the twentieth day; the second and successful expedition in the summer of 1858 occupied eighteen days, including the run to mid ocean for splicing the cable and the return of the Agamemnon to Valentia with one-half of the line; twenty-three days later the cable became dumb. The expedition of 1865 failed, by the breaking of the cable, on the eleventh day of the Great Eastern's voyage. This year the whole time occupied in the run of the great ship was twenty days.

From the New York Tribune.

The Game of Ball.

The physique of Americans has long been a vulnerable point for the attacks of foreigners on the weaknesses of our countrymen, and hitherto we have too well deserved these palpable hits from our healthy out-door-sport-loving cousins of England. Of late years, however, an improvement has been manifested in this country in this respect, and a reformation has been introduced which bids fair to be of great benefit in permanently removing this just cause of censure, and in bringing us up to the physical standard of our forefathers, whose well-exercised muscles enabled them to lay the forests of the wilderness low, and whose powers of endurance led them to withstand so manfully the fatigues of the great seven years struggle for independence.

Among the most influential causes of this desirable reformation has been the establishment of a national out-door sport, something we were not possessed of even so late as ten years ago. Of course our sports must necessarily be of foreign origin, as are the sports of England of Norman and Roman descent, but we can as fairly claim for our national game of Base Ball—as played in accordance with the rules of the "National Association of Base Ball Players"—an originality as an American institution as the English can for their peculiarly national sport of horse racing. Without further discussion on this point, however, let it suffice that the game of Base ball as perfected of late years, is an American game, and one we can honorably claim as our national out-door sport.

As Cricket is to the Englishman, so has Base Ball become to the American. In England, Cricket has more devoted admirers, and more ardent followers, than any pastime known to the English people. On the Cricket field, and there only, the peer and the peasant meet on equal terms; the possession of courage and nerve, judgment and skill, endurance and activity, alone giving the palm of superiority. In fact, a more democratic institution does not exist in Europe than this self same Cricket; and as regards its great popularity, the records of the thousands of games played each year, which include the names of lords as well as commoners, divines as well as lawyers, legislators as well as artisans, and literateurs as well as mechanics and peasants, shows how greatly it has taken hold of that people. If this is the characteristic of Cricket in aristocratic England, how much more will it mark Base Ball in Democratic America?

Unreflecting and prejudiced individuals, who never look below the surface of things, may regard both Cricket and Base Ball as "very good things for boys, perhaps," or "to pass away an idle hour or two on a holiday;" but those who intelligently investigate subjects in regard to cause and effect, see in both these games, but especially in Base Ball, the means to an end which has been sought for in vain for years past on this side of the Atlantic. As a means of physical cultivation, Base Ball is one of the most commendable in vogue. As a remedy, also, for many of the evils accruing from the immoral associations the youths of our cities and towns are liable to, this game merits the indorsement of the best classes of the community. The Rev. C. H. Everst, of Brooklyn, N. Y., in a sermon on Physical Education, which he lately delivered, made a special allusion to Base Ball as a game "whose regulations are calculated to prevent the ill feelings engendered by other games, and one, moreover, which serves to attract our young men from places of bad repute, and to supply the right kind of exercise and amusement." This opinion has been practically endorsed by several clergymen of Philadelphia, who last year formed themselves into a Base Ball Club for purposes of healthful and moral recreation in imitation of the hundreds of English parsons who take such delight in playing Cricket on the commons of their villages.

But one of the strongest inducements to the popularity of our American game of ball is, that it is an out-door sport, and almost the only one which ladies can countenance and witness.—American ladies have hitherto been shut out from all the pleasures incident to such games as Base Ball and Cricket, such as the gratification of witnessing manly contests for superiority in courage, activity, good temper and judgment, by the low character of the surrounding and associations of most of the sports men indulge in. In Base Ball, however, we have an exception in their favor which they have not been slow to take advantage of, as the patronage of the hundreds of the fair sex who have for three or four years past graced Base Ball matches with their welcome presence can testify. If our national pastime had no other recommendation than this, this fact would suffice to give it a popularity no other recreation could compete with in the estimation of Americans.

Base Ball, as now played by the clubs of the National Association, is a New York institution, and it differs materially from the game in vogue in New England, the latter of which within the past five years has almost become obsolete. During the late war the soldiers of both the contesting armies made the game a means of recreation in their camps and prison grounds, and by this means has it been introduced into the South. This year the organization of a Base Ball club at the University of Virginia will give the game an impetus in the South which will lead to its being one of the most popular recreations in which the leisure classes of the "land of chivalry" are prone to indulge, especially so as it is a sport which the Southern belles can patronize as do their compeers of the English nobility the Cricket matches of the Collegians of Oxford and Cambridge. In fact, whether Base Ball be regarded as a desirable means of physical exercise, an exciting game for the masses, or a recreation which is devoid of every reasonable objection that the most fastidious moralist could interpose, it is equally to be commended to the patronage of every American citizen North, South, East and West as the most fitting game for National out door sport.

HUNTINGDON, PA.

W. Lewis, Editor and Proprietor.
Hugh Lindsay, Associate Editor.

Wednesday morning, Aug. 8, 1866.

FOR GOVERNOR,
Maj. Gen. John W. Geary,
OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

☞Congress was in session seven months and the majority of the members before they went home voted themselves an extra bounty of $2,000, and the soldiers $50 and $100 instead of $300 as was first proposed. The members were quite liberal—toward themselves.

☞Ex-Governor Wm. F. Johnston has been appointed by the President, Collector of the Port of Philadelphia. This the radicals will say is another "Copperhead" appointment. Several other appointments were made for Philadelphia, all Union men, but not of Thad. Stevens' kind.

THE Cabinet, with the new appointments, stands as follows:

Secretary of State—Wm. H. Seward.
Secretary of War—E. M. Stanton.
Secretary of the Navy—G. Welles.
Secretary of the Interior—Orville H. Browning.
Postmaster General—A. W. Randall.
Attorney General—H. Stansberry.

☞The National Union Convention to be held in Philadelphia commencing on Tuesday next, promises to be the largest Convention ever held in the United States. It will be a curiosity if nothing more—and may result in good. If so, every good Union man will rejoice. The only men in this State opposed to it are such men as Stevens, Forney & Co., and their obedient followers. They see the hand writing on the wall. They see that the Union party as it existed during the war, will not be moulded to suit their radical and revolutionary purposes.

HOW THE RADICALS LOVE "THE BOYS IN BLUE."—How much honesty there is in the constant professions of affection for the soldiers of the Union army, which make so much of the stock in trade of Radical journals and orators, may be seen in the following item from the New York Tribune:

There is yet some hope that the Senate will refuse to pass the bill for the equalization of bounties, as the House insists upon its disagreements, and the matter is referred to a committee of conference. This bill is foolhardy; it adds a vast expense to the nation, and does little good to individuals.

DON'T BE ALARMED.—Some of the Republicans and some of the radical "Democrats" seem to think that no good can come out of the 14th of August Philadelphia Convention. Result as it may we cannot see what harm it can do. If the Convention blows up in a row the people will be more satisfied than ever that they cannot look to political conventions for relief. If it should conduct its business harmoniously, and condescend to do something to bring about a better feeling all over the Union, we cannot see why all good and true men should not rejoice at such a result.

☞The difficulty in the Union party of the country was commenced during the war by Thad. Stevens and others of his school of politicians. President Lincoln was denounced by them, and they even went so far as to attempt to defeat his re-nomination. Failing in this they continued their persecution of him until his death. As soon as Andrew Johnson occupied the Presidential chair, and before it was known that he would differ with Congress as to the policy to be adopted by the Union party for the restoration of the rebel States, Stevens commenced to abuse him in his speeches made in the House. The truth is clear that Stevens is not a more bitter enemy of President Johnson than he was of President Lincoln, but during the war he could not rally his friends as readily as he has since the close of the rebellion. Nothing short of negro suffrage and negro equality will satisfy Stevens & Co., and this or revolution he will have if permitted to control the Union party.

☞The following have been fixed as the rates for the Atlantic Telegraph from any station in America, to any in Great Britain: For twenty words or less, including address of sender and receiver, twenty pounds in gold; every additional word not exceeding five letters, twenty shillings sterling per word. From same to same in Europe, twenty one pounds; every additional word twenty one shillings. From same to same in Africa, Asia, or India, not exceeding in all one hundred letters, twenty five pounds; every additional word, twenty five shillings. The letters in all words after the first twenty, will be counted and divided by five. Each five or fractional remainder will be charged as a word. Messages in cypher will be charged double the foregoing rates.

Huntingdon has at last got a money order post office. By this system, money can be sent from one order office to another without danger of loss. The rates of commission are: On orders not exceeding $20, ten cents; over $20 and not exceeding $50, twenty five cents; no single order issued for more than fifty dollars; persons desiring to remit larger sums must obtain additional money orders.

☞The National Union Convention commences next Tuesday in Philadelphia. It promises to be well attended.

Another "Traitor."

The North American, edited by Hon. Morton McMichael, Mayor of Philadelphia, is not all the radicals would wish it to be. We give an extract or two from its editorial columns of last Thursday:

Our country has been so unaccustomed to such burdens as this vast debt, that all who contemplate as we do, with uneasiness the complicated and confused mass of taxes now inflicted upon us as a consequence of that debt, must be rejoiced to find this policy of reduction the settled determination of the government. No doubt hereafter each successive administration will be more or less judged of by the extent of its labors in this direction, and President Johnson has made a very good beginning by what has been accomplished under his direction since his accession to the Presidency.

President Johnson has preferred the direct and obvious plan of retrenchment and immediate reduction, for the purpose of affording present relief from the more onerous burdens of taxation. We give him credit for this policy rather than any one else, because it was a corollary of his whole past political life. His speeches were always replete with advocacy of low taxation, cheap government, and simplicity of administrative forms. His prompt reorganization of the conquered States on the return of peace, and disbandment of our vast armies and swarms of war officials, undoubtedly saved the nation hundreds of millions of dollars; and, as we approved of his action then, we have since seen no reason to change our views."

Mr. McMichael then turns his attention to the radicals in Congress, saying they were bewildered amidst their own schemes of public plunder, and adds:

For this reason it is essential that the national government should seriously address itself, as the administration of President Johnson has been doing, to the work of discharging the debt, and it is also essential that Congress should do as little as possible toward increasing our expenditures.

What we desire is, that the President should be streghened in his efforts to limit expenditures and reduce the public debt. Congressional extravagance has long been proverbial, and one session seems no worse than another in that respect. But if, while widely differing from him in other respects, the confidence of the people was shown to be retained by the President in that portion of his policy which seeks retrenchment of expenses and reduction of debt, that sentiment could not fail to react upon Congress and arrest the schemes of plunder that run riot at every session.

Nothing, it seems to us, can be more clear, more emphatic, and more reasonable than this.

THE NEW ORLEANS RIOT.—We give in another column a condensed account of the political riot in New Orleans, which we fear will be followed up with similar results in other places, if radicals persist in their attempt to force upon the people their "policy." We are not surprised that "free speech" is interfered with, when the whole white population of a State is insulted by the speaker. We have read in the Philadelphia Press the speech of Gov. Hahn, delivered at the mass meeting of radicals and five thousand negroes in New Orleans on the 30th ult. The meeting was held for the purpose of recommending the re-assembling of the State Convention of '64. We give but a few lines of Mr. Hahn's speech and ask our readers how they would like to listen to such stuff.

Gov. Hahn said:

"No man can justly claim to be a Union man unless he favors universal suffrage."

Addressing the negroes he said:

"The question is whether you will be allowed to hold office as white men do; I say you are entitled to the right. * * * It is to you that the loyal men of the South must look, and when you separate to-night make up your minds from this day forward, you are as good as any white man in the State. [Great cheering."]

Can any man entertaining such sentiments be elected to office from any county in this State? Yet such sentiments are endorsed by the radical leaders in every State in the Union. Is it any wonder, that the once powerful Union party is falling to pieces.

MESSAGE FROM THE QUEEN.

ASPY BAY, July 30.

The superintendent of the New Foundland line arrived here at 9 o'clock this morning with the following message from the Queen of Great Britain to the President of United States:

OSBORNE, July 27th, 1866.—To the President of the U. S. Washington, D. C.:

The Queen congratulates the President on the successful completion of an undertaking which she hopes may serve as an additional bond of union between the United States and England.

THE PRESIDENT'S REPLY.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, July 30, 11.20 A. M.

To Her Majesty, the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland:

The President of the United States acknowledges with profound gratification the receipt of Her Majesty's dispatch, and cordially reciprocates the hope that the cable which now unites the western and the eastern hemispheres may serve to strengthen and perpetuate peace and unity between the Governments of England and the Republic of the United States.

(Signed) ANDREW JOHNSON.

A mass Union Convention will be held in Reading on Wednesday, August 22d. It will be a grand affair as all the adjoining counties will "pitch in."

The Boys in Blue Speak.

The publication of the following handsome endorsement of our humble self has been requested and we comply.

To William Lewis, Esq., Editor of the Globe:

We feel that the soldiers of Huntingdon county owe you a debt of gratitude for your devotion to them and the cause of the country through the late war. In the darkest hours of the rebellion your patriotism never wavered, and while we were away from home, fighting treason in front of an armed foe, you stood faithful to us and the national cause with a courage that knew no fear.

Disregarding former party ties and organizations, you gave your means and your paper to the support of the war and the brave men who were periling their lives for the integrity of the Union.

Knowing and feeling this, it is with deep regret that we have read the recent proceedings of what is called the "Geary League" of this county. We are sorry that a few of our soldiers, who have escaped rebel bullets, are now in the hands of a clique of politicians, who know no motive higher than their interest, and whose patriotism extends only to the "loaves and fishes." In the desperate effort of these worn out political tricksters to control conventions and secure nominations, they are willing to abuse and traduce the men who have remained most faithful to the soldier during the war, and while professing great love for "the boys in blue," they oppose every effort to reward worthy soldiers with civil office. We cannot forget that the three crippled soldiers now holding positions of honor and profit in this county, were all nominated over the most determined opposition of the very clique that is now using the Geary League to slander you.

You stood for the soldiers against the politician, and the generous heart of the people went with you. We thank you for what you have done for the soldier, and we trust that you will again be able to rout the miserable faction that are attempting to use the heroes of the war for their selfish and heartless purpose.

We assure you that the work of the political tricksters in trying to have the Geary League denounce you is an outrage upon the true soldiers of Huntingdon county, and will be, as it deserves to be, overwhelmingly rebuked by them.

[COMMUNICATED.]

CUMMINSVILLE, July 30, 1866.

Wm. Lewis:—Dear Sir:—I feel that I would not be doing right if I would not applaud you for your patriotic course which you have dared to brave, notwithstanding the so-called Soldiers' League reading you out of the great Union party, of which they want to make us poor privates believe they are the head and shoulder. I am sorry to hear that those soldiers who constitute the "boys in blue" of the ancient borough should so far forget who was the true soldiers' friend all through the late rebellion, or who has been the true and tried friend of the soldier last fall in getting a whole soldiers ticket nominated and elected. I would beg those worthies to pause for one moment, and I think that after taking a sober second thought they will have to acknowledge that William Lewis has been the soldiers fast friend and is yet. I am very sorry that the "boys in blue" have fallen into the hands of a few political hucksters, but I am also glad to tell you that they do not speak the sentiment of the great majority of the "boys in blue" but merely those eleven controled by those broken down politicians, who want to use the soldiers as a cloak for their own bad designs.

Now, if the boys in blue, through the instigation of those poor, miserable, would-be leaders of the great Union party, read all out of the party who do not see fit to endorse the course of Thad Stevens & Co., I fear that they will find out when too late that they have read out of the party the greater number of soldiers of Huntingdon Co. For fear somebody may think I too am a Copperhead I will have to define my position. I am a Johnson-Geary Union man. I always acted with and voted with the great Union Party, and would no more touch a Copperhead ticket than a snake of the same name. Yours, VETERAN.

The New Orleans Riot.

Thirty persons Killed and a large number Wounded.

The public are familiar with the objects and proceedings of the State convention of Louisiana, which assembled in New Orleans on the 6th of April, 1864, ostensibly for the purpose of revising and amending the constitution of the State, and after remaining in session two and a half months, almost a new constitution was produced which was submitted to the people and adopted by the popular voice.

An attempt was made during the present month by some of the radical members to revive the dead convention, as it is called, for the purpose of ratifying the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and the President, Mr. E. H. Durell, was requested to issue a proclamation reconvoking the body. When the convention was first called only a portion of the State was within the Union lines, and therefore a great number of the parishes were unrepresented. Mr. Durell taking the ground that when the convention, on the 23d of June, 1864, adjourned, it ceased to have any legal existence, and its members were out of office, refused to comply with the demands of the radicals. A meeting was then called, and a President pro-tem. appointed, as before stated, who issued a proclamation reconvoking the dead convention.

Governor Wells was solicited to issue writs ordering elections to fill the vacancies in the restored parishes, which he consented to do, but fixed the day of election on the 3d of September next. There were twenty-one unrepresented parishes in 1864, which were entitled to fifty-two representatives. The radicals, however, were determined to assemble on Monday last; but it is stated it was their intention to adjourn until some day subsequent to the one appointed for the holding of the elections.

There were a number of the members of the convention of 1864 who coincided in the views taken by the President, and refused to meet with the radicals. One, Mr. J. B. Bromley, thought that no good could be accomplished by reassembling, and he is reported to have said that he went to New Orleans with General Butler to fight against the rebels, and that he had no idea now of joining in an insane and revolutionary movement. Another, Judge Abell, of New Orleans, not only refused to join the so-called conspirators, but in his judicial capacity charged the grand jury to the effect that the officer of State who endeavored to change the Government through the action of the members of that convention subjected himself to a prosecution for perjury. He branded its members as "political apostates and military deserters; the meanest and basest of mankind, venal, cowardly, and treacherous."

The President pro tem. (Mr. R. R. Howell) of the reassembled convention it is stated, had been on a visit to Washington, and had received instructions from radical members of Congress. Immediately upon his return to New Orleans a call was issued for a meeting of the citizens who were in favor of universal suffrage, of the reconstruction policy of Congress, and of amending the constitution of the State to give equal rights to all without distinction of color. This meeting was held on Friday night last, and contributed to add to the excitement which was then prevailing.

The causes which created the disgraceful riot on Monday last are thus briefly set forth. Bad and horrifying as it was, the radical journals of this city were not content with the facts as they came over the wires, but greatly exaggerated the statements. One of them announced that two hundred negroes had been killed, and that the hall where the convention was held was literally flooded with the blood of Union men, while the simple fact was that only two of the members had been seriously wounded, one of whom has since died. Another paper stated that dead negroes were lying about the streets; that few were arrested, as they were being rapidly killed.

Another Account.

[From the New York Times.]

WASHINGTON, July 31.—A New Orleans correspondent furnishes, under date of July 30, the following detailed and connected account of the outbreak in that city.

The convention met at 12 o'clock, twenty-six members being present, Judge R. K. Howell, since missing, in the chair.

R. King Butler, also missing, moved an adjournment of an hour, during which time the sergeant-at-arms was directed to compel the attendance of absentees. The hall was densely crowded with freedmen and whites, the former having armed themselves extensively since their Friday's demonstrations. Just before the adjournment a procession containing about a hundred freedmen, carrying a United States flag and marching the streets with martial music, arrived at the institute, having had a slight disturbance on Canal street.

At this juncture the merchants all over the city, fearing the coming riot, closed their stores. When the procession entered the building a squad of police followed and attempted to make arrests. A scene of the wildest confusion followed. Pistols were fired, clubs and canes were used, and brickbats flew in every direction. The policemen claim that they were merely attempting to arrest the Canal-street rioters above mentioned; but certain it is that they mounted the platform, where a small body of the members yet remained, and one of them presented a pistol upon their using offensive language.

The policemen were finally driven out of the building, leaving inside Gov. Hahn, Judge Howell, Mr. De Costie, and other gentlemen, with Clark, attached to the State government, besides about fifty freedmen. Fortunately Gov. Wells had just left the building for the purpose of consulting with General Baird about calling out troops, General Sheridan being out of town.

Up to this time one police officer had been mortally wounded, one severely, others were slightly hurt with clubs and pistol-shots. Police reinforcements soon appeared in Canal street, and the crowd of rioters accompanying the police approached the institute and commenced throwing stones through the windows and firing pistols at any one they could see inside the building. At the same time a detachment of police attacked a crowd of freedmen on Common street, and after sharp firing and wounding several blacks, they drove them away. This gave the police and the mob which accompanied them full control of Dryades street.

Several attempts were made by the police to enter the building, but they were repulsed. The ammunition of the men in the institute seemed to give out about this time, as they did not fire any more. They attempted to escape through the rear of the institute into Baronne street; but were met and either arrested or shot down.

Mr. Dostie, who had the reputation of being the most violent negro suffrage man in the South, and who certainly was the most violent speaker on Friday last, was killed while attempting to get away. I am told that a policeman shot him in the back, and that after he fell a crowd jumped on him and cut him horribly with knives.

The riot commenced at fifteen minutes after twelve o'clock, and ended at half past three. At quarter before three the military, under Gen. Baird, appeared on Canal street, and finally took possession of the whole city.

NEW ORLEANS.—Major General O. O. Howard: The riot has been suppressed. I have declared martial law in the city. About forty persons have been killed and a large number wounded, nearly all being friendly to the convention. A. BAIRD, Brevet Maj. Gen.

Dispatch from General Sheridan.

In order that the following from Gen. Sheridan be fully understood, it should be stated that he was absent from New Orleans when the disturbances commenced in that city:—

New Orleans, 1.30 P. M., August 1, 1866.—To General U. S. Grant, Washington, D. C.:—You are doubtless aware of the serious riot which occurred in this place on the 30th. A political body, styling itself the Convention of 1864, met there on the 30th, for the purpose of remodelling the present Constitution of the State. The leaders were political agitators and revolutionary men and the action of the Convention was liable to produce breaches of the public peace.

I had made up my mind to arrest the head men if the proceedings of the Convention were calculated to disturb the tranquility of the department; but I had no cause for action until they had committed the overt act. About forty whites and blacks were killed, and about one hundred and sixty wounded.

Everything is now quiet; but I deem it best to maintain military supremacy in the city for a few days, until the affair is fully investigated. I believe the sentiment of the general community is greatly scandalized at this unnecessary cruelty, and that the police could have made any arrest they saw fit without sacrificing lives.

P. H. SHERIDAN.
Major General Commanding.

By Portland Fire, July 4th.
The total amount covered by Ætna policies on property destroyed or damaged is $206,854, on which salvage will be about 5 per cent. Our total loss will not vary much from $200,000, and is being promptly adjusted and paid. This sum is 5 per cent upon the assets, a figure but slightly exceeding our government and State taxes paid last year, or a proportion equal to a $5000 loss for a company of $100,000 assets.
The necessity for insurance and the value of wealthy, strong corporations, is forcibly illustrated by this fire.—Several weak Insurance Companies have been destroyed. Portland has a population of 35,000; was handsomely built, mostly fine brick or stone structures—protected and screened with upwards of 3000 shade trees—bounded on three sides by water—indeed, literally, almost rising from the ocean—and with a good steam fire department—yet it has $10,000,000 of property consumed in a few hours—upon a holiday when its people are least occupied—from the very insignificant cause of a contemptible fire cracker.
Remember the trifling origin of fires that sweep away in a few hours the earnings of years. Consider your best interests and give the Ætna agent a call if you need proper Insurance security. Policies issued at fair terms.

Delegate Elections.

The voters of the Union Party are requested to meet at the usual places, on Saturday, the 11th day of August next, at six o'clock in the evening, in the townships, and 7½ o'clock in the boroughs, for the purpose of electing delegates to a county convention to be held at the Court House in Huntingdon, on Tuesday, the 14th day of August, at two o'clock, P. M., to nominate a ticket and transact such other business as the interests of the party may require.

A. H. BAUMAN,
July 9, 1866. Chairman Co. Com.

An Offer—Will Robert Accept.

For some weeks, Robert McDivitt, editor of the Journal & American, has been making assertions in the columns of that paper, which if true, would, as they should, injure us in our business as well as in any political influence we may have in or out of the county. We have thus far treated all his slanders and personal abuse with silent contempt, and we would not now refer to them if we were not urged to do so by many personal friends who are anxious to see Robert with his low personal abuse of us driven to the wall. We therefore, that Robert may have an opportunity to make for himself a character for truth, if he can, offer him the following proposition:

For every name of a responsible man you can secure to a certificate, certifying that what you have said of us is true, we will give you fifty dollars. Now Robert, if you have been publishing the truth, you will have no difficulty making a few thousand dollars. If you cannot secure backing to your assertions, your readers who are not personally acquainted with us and who do not know them to be false, can come to no other conclusion than that you are one of the lowest and meanest liars in the county. Come Robert, dont back out, your christian character is at stake.

Fatal Accident.

A young man named John Ritter, son of David Ritter, residing near Mill Creek, this county, met with a fatal accident at this place on Wednesday last. He got on a train going to Mill Creek, for the purpose of riding home. When but a short distance below town by some mishap or other, he fell from the car, and falling under the wheels, he was terribly bruised before being extricated. He was taken to the station, where medical assistance was immediately summoned, and the extent of his injuries made known. He had his left arm cut almost entirely off, his left leg entirely off above the knee, and the right leg crushed below the knee, the car wheels destroying the whole calf of the leg. He suffered from 4,15 P. M., the time of the accident, until 9,15 P. M., when death ensued to end his suffering.

Attend the Delegate Elections.

If a Cameron man should be nominated for the Legislature on Tuesday next over a reliable friend of Andrew G. Curtin, the friend of the soldier, the widow and the orphan, it will be because Curtin's friends failed to elect the right men as delegates to the County Convention. Men who cannot be influenced by promises of favors, should be elected in every district. What has been attempted by Cameron heretofore to carry his point will be attempted again if necessary. He has the money, honestly made of course, and he will not fail to be liberal to those who can be bought. We call upon the soldiers of the county to stand by their friend as firmly as he has stood by them from the commencement of the war.

Our National Game.

On Thursday morning last our town was graced with the presence of the Resolute Club of Bedford, which had come to play the Spartan Club, of this place, composed of boys of the same age as the Resolute. The game commenced, on the grounds of the Social, at 10 o'clock, on Thursday, and was played very well throughout. The Spartans have gained a reputation, of which they are deserving, but which very few thought they would achieve, while the Resolute boys take with them the esteem and good wishes of our people. We think the Resolute boys should be played at home, to test their skill, and we hope the Spartans will not claim the championship until they beat them two games out of three which is the rule. We can expect the Spartan to challenge the Social on the strength of their victory. The score of the match game is as follows:

SPARTAN.	O.	R.	RESOLUTE.	O.	R.

Umpire, Thos. C. Fisher, Social; Scorers, C. Bevens for Spartan, Wm. A. Nickodemus, for Resolute. Time of game three hours.

—On Saturday afternoon last the match game between the first nine of the Social of this place, and the first nine of the Juniata of Hollidaysburg, which claims to be the champion club of Western Pennsylvania, came off on the grounds of the former club. The game commenced with the Social at the bat (as usual,) and in the first inning they made 4 while they allowed the Juniata to make 15. The Social should endeavor to play more cautiously, or else remove those tender feelings they might have at the beginning of the game, whereby they have allowed these and former opponents to make a hard-to-beat run, which tells effectually at the end of the game. Every inning should be played carefully, no matter whether ahead or behind.

The champions, we think, have found their match, all that is necessary is for the first nine of the Social to practice more together, and to meet the Juniata soon with the determination to beat them. The best feeling prevailed amongst the members of both clubs throughout the game. The following is the score:

SOCIAL.	O.	R.	JUNIATA.	O.	R.

—The match game between the Star of Altoona and the Hartslog of Alexandria, has been postponed until Saturday next, 11th, when it will be played on the grounds of the Mountain.

SPARTAN BASE BALL CLUB.

This club is composed of boys in their teens and has been organized about six weeks. They play very well considering the short time they have been organized, and are now ready to accept challenges from all Junior Clubs which have not been organized over three months.

Agricultural Fair.

We hope our farmers and our readers generally have not forgotten that a fair will be held in the latter part of September next. The complaint last year was that sufficient notice had not been given to prepare, but this cannot be urged this year. If there are any who have forgotten it, we trust they will improve every opportunity in the short time intervening to bring forth every product and article to the best advantage. Proper culture and care are requisite, so let every one exercise both, and the next Fair will be what it should be. The Agricultural Society meets next Tuesday evening, when the premium list will be prepared for publication. We understand that higher premiums will be offered than on any previous occasion. This will be no more than justice, and the society being better able to give high prizes, we can consider it a settled fact that they will be given. Let farmers, housekeepers, artists, mechanics and others, strive to win the highest premiums.

Magic and Mystery.

No person should fail to call at the Garden of Col. E. C. Summers, during Court week, and witness the performances of T. J. Lewis, the greatest Magician in the world. He will perform every evening during the week, the great eastern mystery, which has astonished thousands and held monarchs in awe, known as the Sphynx, without the flesh and blood of man, yet talking, singing, smoking, and acting as a man; whilst the spectators gaze in amazement, unable to fathom the deep mystery, and ask of each other, What is it? He will in addition to the above perform many mysterious things belonging to his profession, which will be enumerated on the bills. 2t

—The delegate election will be held on Saturday evening next. From all the rumors we hear there will be as there should be, a full turn out.

Not the Resolutions.

The Journal & American of last week published what it said was the resolutions adopted by the friends of Geary at a meeting held in the Court House on the same day of the meeting of the soldiers friendly to the election of Clymer. We refused to publish the same resolutions simply because they were not the resolutions read and adopted by the meeting. We have no idea of being made a tool of to gratify the vanity of would-be leaders of the Geary soldiers of Huntingdon county. Not one of every twenty of Geary's soldier friends in the county belong to the League or approve its disorganizing proceedings. It is composed of and controlled by a select few who look upon Geary's interest as of secondary importance.

[For the Globe.]

"ROBERT THE SCRIBE."

Lean Robert McDivitt—most shadowy man—
Whom plethora fails to enlarge;
You're constructed in fact on the meagerest plan—
Light burdens you take and discharge.
Your intestinal want and weak beating heart.
With dyspepsia to add to your ills,
Take composure away—make you suddenly start—
And you pour out your malice through quills.

If your malice was large—had the force of a devil
As he bullies the legions of hell;
If your sceptre commanded diabolical revel,
Some terrors about you might dwell;
But your wickedness dropping like spite of the witch,
As she jibbers and hisses and swears;
You seem very much like that wonderful b—h,
That only the ignorant scares.

Plunge your soul for the once in ethereal skies,
Draw the power of loveliness down;
Drink kindness and love from benevolent eyes;
And honors your brow may encrown.
Attend to your business, nor measure a lance
With persons who wish you no harm;
And a warm bubbling heart may your bosom entrance,
And lend to your spirit a charm.

General Geary.

We see bills posted up at several places in town with the following announcement:

"The friends of General Geary are hereby informed that our hero-candidate will be present at the meeting of the "Boys in Blue," at Huntingdon, on Saturday August 18th. All are invited to attend."

M. S. LYTLE, President.
W. F. CUNNINGHAM, Secretary.

☞ We expect to see the politicians of the Union party in town next week—and we may expect to have a lively and noisy time. We shall make all possible efforts to keep cool and sober, and shall be pleased to receive numerous calls from friends and enemies. We always feel at home when those who differ with us politically give us an opportunity to "explain." Give us a call.

OBITUARY.

MR. EDITOR.—The funeral sermon of Mr JACOB MAIZE, of this city, was preached by the writer on yesterday, Sabbath, 29th inst., from Revelations ch. 14, 13, to a large and deeply sympathising congregation. And thinking it might be relieving to the minds of his surviving parents and other relatives in your locality. I would further state that our deceased brother had been a most worthy and exemplary member of this charge, (Desplains St. M. E. Church, Chicago,) ever since he came to this city. When at home here, his Sabbaths were spent in the Church, Sabbath School, and in the use of all the means of grace. His bearing and demeanor at all times, was that of a christian gentleman; while his most intimate associates here, as known to the writer, were those of the most worthy members of the M. E. Church in Chicago. In his pocket diary, which was shown the writer by his most intimate friend here, scarcely a single entry is made without some reference to his religious state or enjoyments. We copy one or two from the many. In last April he says "I long for holiness of heart,"—"I am not satisfied with my present experience." His last Sabbath in Freeport, one week before his death, he says again, "This day has been one of rest and peace." Rev. Mr. Cleaveland, at Rockford, who knew him there said "He was a christian among strangers." And this is also confirmed by the men on the same railroad, on which he was conductor. A short time before his death he was told by Rev. Cleaveland that the chances of his recovery were against him. And while he seemed somewhat startled at the near approach of death he nevertheless said in reply that "if it were the Lord's will he was willing and ready to go." And from that time forward during his sane moments he was much engaged in prayer, until he slept the sleep of death.

SIMPSON GUYER,
Pastor, Desplains St. M. E. Church, Chicago, Illinois.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

ASSOCIATE JUDGE.

Among the many names spoken of in connection with the nomination for the office of Associate Judge at the approaching Union Convention is that of HENRY BREWSTER, Esq., of Shirleysburg. It is believed that Mr. Brewster if elected, would fill that position with credit, both to himself and the community he would represent. It is believed further then that Mr. Brewster has claims upon the suffrages of the people of Huntingdon County dating back to the time of its dismemberment some twenty years ago, claims which have never been liquidated or cancelled. Furthermore Mr. Brewster, though he has never personally stood in the ranks as a soldier, yet he has furnished three sons for the Union army. One for four years, one for three years, and another for one year; each of whom received an honourable discharge at the expiration of his term of service. Moreover Mr. Brewster has always been the soldiers friend and supporter, and has uniformly sustained that cause which has given the soldiers glory and renown. TRUTH.

Aug. 1, 1866–tc*.

MR. LEWIS:—Among the many names I have seen in print and heard mentioned in connection with the nomination for Associate Judge, I have not yet seen that of a soldier. Permit me, then, to suggest GEORGE W. CORNELIUS, of Shirleysburg. Mr. C. is well qualified for the position; is a firm Union man, and served his Country in the late War. CROMWELL.

July 25, '66–tc.*

WM. LEWIS, ESQ:—It will be admitted that the lower end of the county is entitled to the nomination for Associate Judge. In view of this fact I would recommend the name of SAMUEL M'VITTY, Esq., of Clay township, to the attention of the voters, as a gentleman who is worthy and well qualified to perform the duties of the position,—Subject to the Union nominating County Convention.

July 8, 1866.* UNION.

MR. LEWIS:

I see in the Huntingdon Journal and American, the name of DAVID SNARE, Esq., made use of for the office of Associate Judge. I am pleased to see it—no better man in the county could be named, nor any more worthy. His long experience as a Justice of the Peace, his honesty and independence, fully qualifies him for that office. I have consulted with a number of persons on the subject, and find that he will secure a general support, if nominated by the Union Convention of this county. A SUBSCRIBER.

June 23, 1866.–tc.*

REGISTER AND RECORDER.

We are requested by a number of citizens of the lower end to announce JOHN C. SMUCKER as a candidate for Register and Recorder, subject to the decision of the Union County Convention. Mr. Smucker is a graduate of the Philadelphia College, and is a very worthy young man, fully qualified for the position. He was disabled while fighting the battles of his country.

jy25* BRADY.

PROTHONOTARY.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—A Prothonotary is to be elected in October next, and we are happy to hear that Mr. J. RANDOLPH SIMPSON, of Huntingdon, is a candidate for nomination, subject to the will of the Union County Convention, and that his prospects for a unanimous nomination are almost certain. There could not be a better choice in the county, as he is an industrious young man, fully acquainted with the business of the office, and better than all, is a public officer, takes pleasure in accommodating and attending promptly to the business of those who have occasion to visit him. His claims are equal if not superior to any others, from the fact that he perfectly understands the very complicated business of the Prothonotary's office; is well versed in the laws of the land; and in the dark hours of our country's peril gave his all in defense of our sacred institutions, and to preserve untarnished the honor of our flag. The Union voters of Huntingdon county will ratify with pleasure his nomination.

July 18, 1866 JACKSON TWP.

PROCLAMATION.—WHEREAS, by a precept to me directed, dated at Huntingdon, the 21st day of April, A. D. 1866, under the hands and seal of the Hon. George Taylor, President of the Court of Common Pleas, Oyer and Terminer, and general jail delivery of the 24th Judicial District of Pennsylvania, composed of Huntingdon, Blair and Cambria counties; and the Hons. Benj. F. Patton and Anthony J. Beaver, his associates, Judges of the county of Huntingdon, justices assigned, appointed to hear, try and determine all and every indictments made or taken for or concerning all crimes, which by the laws of the State are made capital, or felonies of death, and other offences, crimes and misdemeanors, which have been or shall hereafter be committed or perpetrated, for crimes aforesaid—I am commanded to make public proclamation throughout my whole bailiwick, that a Court of Oyer and Terminer, of Common Pleas and Quarter Sessions, will be held at the Court House in the borough of Huntingdon, on the second Monday (and 13th day) of August next, and those who will prosecute the said prisoners, be then and there to prosecute them as it shall be just, and that all Justices of the Peace, Coroner and Constables within said county, be then and there in their proper persons, at 10 o'clock, a. m. of said day, with their records, inquisitions, examinations and remembrances, to do those things which to their offices respectively appertain.

Dated at Huntingdon, the 10th day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and the 90th year of American Independence.

PROF. J. H. M'ENTYRE'S GREAT REMEDY,

THE

INDIAN COMPOUND

Internal and External Medicine,

WILL CURE:

☞ Diarrhœa, Bloody Flux in one day,
☞ Headache and Earache in three minutes.
☞ Toothache in one minute.
☞ Neuralgia in five minutes,
☞ Sprains in twenty minutes,
☞ Sore Throat in ten minutes,
☞ Cholic and Cramp in five minutes,
☞ Rheumatism in one day,
☞ Pain in the Back or Side in ten minutes,
☞ Bad Coughs or Colds in one day,
☞ Fever and Ague in one day.
☞ Cures Deafness, Asthma, Piles,
☞ Bronchitis Affections, Dyspepsia,
☞ Inflammation of the Kidneys, Erysipelas,
☞ Liver Complaint and Palpitation of the Heart.

Keep it in your Families—Sickness comes when least expected.

I propose to check, and effectually dissipate more ache and pain, and to accomplish more perfect equilibrium of all the circulating fluids in the human system, than can be effected by any other, or all other methods of medical aid in the same space of time.

THIS POPULAR REMEDY is fast coming into use, for the fact that I cure, free of charge, all these complaints whenever there is an opportunity to do so. As soon as it is applied it almost miraculously kills the pain. I do not ask you to buy before you are certain of its efficiency. If you have an ache or pain, it is warranted to do all it purports on the label.

I do not propose to cure every disease—only a class named by my directions. My liniment operates on chemical and electric principles, and is, therefore, appliable, to the cure or natural restorative of all organic derangement arising from an improper circulation of the nervo vital fluids:

Prof. J. H. McEntyre's INDIAN COMPOUND acts directly on the absorbents, reducing glandular and other swellings in incredible short time, without any possible danger from its use under any possible circumstances.

This is an internal and external medicine—composed of roots, herbs and barks, such as our forefathers used.—There is a bountiful supply on earth to cure all complaints if we only knew what they were.

This has been a great study with the Medical Faculty for many years, to find out the kinds best adapted to the above complaints—how to put them together, and what proportions to use.

J. H. McENTYRE,
Proprietor, Reading, Pa.

DR. VENARD'S

STAR MAGIC LINIMENT.

$1000 REWARD will be paid for any medicine that excels this for the following diseases:

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Spinal Affections, Contracted Joints, Cholic Pains, Pains in Side or Back, Toothache, Headache, Sprains, Sore Throat, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, and all Diseases of the Muscles, Skin and Glands.

This is an Internal and External Medicine, composed of Roots, Herbs and Barks such as our forefathers used.—There is a bountiful supply on the earth to cure all complaints, if we only knew what they were. This has been a subject for constant study with the Medical Faculty for a great many years, to find out the kinds best adapted to the above complaints—how to put them together, and what portions to use.

This wonderful remedy needs no recommendation save the results which invariably follow its application.

☞ This popular remedy is fast coming into use from the fact that it gives good satisfaction.

☞ PHYSICIANS are invited to test its efficacy in all cases of Rheumatism, Affections of the Spinal Column, and all Diseases of the Skin, Muscles and Glands. It has been used in thousands of instances under the personal supervision of the Inventors, and has never disappointed their expectations. All we ask for it is a trial—experimental proof—not the testimony of the men of straw, are the vouchers we desire to present to the public.

It would be well for many now lying in beds of torture, if these facts could reach their sick chambers. It is more important to them than to the inventors that this should be the case. "Truth is mighty and must prevail."

☞ Keep it in your family, for sickness comes when you least expect it.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

TO THE LADIES.—Do you really intend to cease wearing the beautiful styles now so prevalent, or dress less elegantly, because the rebel Jeff. Davis, was captured in Fashionable Female attire? One moment's calm reflection will surely serve to change your rash resolve. The angels had too much good sense to lay aside their pure chaste robes of white, because they had for a time served to hide the deformities of that Prince of Rebels, the Devil. Can you err in following the example of Angels? Then having made up your minds that you will continue to dress tastefully regardless of rebel acts, do not forget to call at the store of the subscribers, who will be happy at all times to furnish you with such articles of dress as you may desire. Urge your fathers, husbands, brothers, neighbors and children to visit the same store. They can here be suited in good articles of Boots, Shoes, Clothing Material, Hats, Caps, Queensware and a general assortment of Groceries, on as reasonable terms as at any House in town.
